

Son of God, you died for us, with arms outstretched upon a cross: we pray for the world where you are crucified each day with the destitute, the oppressed, the dispossessed.

Silence

Jesus Christ, condemned by us, have mercy upon us, and hear our prayer.

Son of God, you died for us, falsely accused, mocked and condemned to death: we pray for all who govern, those who make and administer law, for all who are denied justice.

Silence

Jesus Christ, condemned by us, have mercy upon us, and hear our prayer.

Son of God, you died for us, denied, deserted and rejected by those you loved: we pray for all who feel the hurt or rejected love, the pain of betrayal and abandonment.

Silence

Jesus Christ, condemned by us, have mercy upon us, and hear our prayer.

Son of God, you died for us, to fulfil the words of the prophets and bring deliverance to all your people: we pray for the Jewish people, loved by God from ancient time

Silence

Jesus Christ, bruised for us, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Son of God, you died for us, to rescue your people from the power of sin: we pray for the church, for its clergy and ministers, for all who will make or renew baptismal vows.

Silence

Jesus Christ, wounded for us, in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Son of God, you died for us, to show us your steadfast love for your people: we pray for all who live or work in this community, our families, our friends and all whom we love.

Silence

Jesus Christ, broken for us, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

Son of God, you died for us, to bring healing, wholeness and new life to your people: we pray for those in sickness, sorrow, grief or pain and for all who are close to death.

Silence

Jesus Christ, brought low for us, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

. Within our Parish we pray for: READ Weekly Prayer sheet

Son of God, you died for us, with arms outstretched upon a cross: we remember all who have been condemned to die, all who have died in pain and torment.

With the women who loved you and ministered to you and with the disciple whom you loved, may we stand with you this day. At our life's end, forgive us our desertions and betrayals and stretch out your arms to receive us, that, with all your saints, we may live with you in Paradise.

Jesus Christ, raised high for us, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

We offer our prayers together as we pray:

Almighty God,
you have promised to hear our prayers.

Grant that what we have asked
we may receive.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.