We give thanks, O God, that you gather your people from north and south, from east and west: hear our prayers for all the peoples of the world. We pray for all who are victims of hatred, oppression or war, for those whose greed, apathy or lust for power destroys the lives of others.

When we choose the ways of evil and reject your light, let us turn to you that we might live.

We give thanks, O God, that you sent your Son into the world to bring salvation to your people: hear our prayers for your holy, catholic church. We pray for your clergy and ministers, for all who worship in this place, for all who preach the gospel and seek to bring your people into fullness of life. When we find the bonds of slavery safer than the risks of freedom, let us turn to you that we might live.

God of love and goodness, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

We give thanks, O God, that your love for your people is from everlasting to everlasting: hear our prayers for all in this community. We pray for those who are excluded, undervalued or forgotten in our society, for those with whom we work, for our families, our friends and for ourselves.

When we are preoccupied with our own needs and overlook the concerns of others, let us turn to you that we might live.

God of love and goodness, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

We give you thanks, O God, that in Christ you bring your people from death to everlasting life: hear our prayers for all who have died in your love. We pray for those we love who rest in your presence, for those of this parish whose yearly remembrance occurs at this time.

Now, and when we draw near the gate of death, let us look on you and believe, that we, with all your saints, might know the joy of eternal life.

God of love and goodness, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

The Faithful Departed

We pray together:

Almighty God, you have promised to hear our prayers.
Grant that what we have asked in faith
we may by your grace receive,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
