

God of all glory,
it is good that we are here in your presence.

On Mount Sinai your glory overshadowed Moses and you gave to him your holy law: may your world today receive your wisdom and word, that nations may dwell in peace and be governed for the good of all.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

On the mountain of transfiguration you revealed Christ's glory and majesty:
may your church today reveal your glory to others, that your gospel may be proclaimed in all the world.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

On the mountain-top Peter, James and John trembled in the presence of your glory: may the communities in which we live glimpse the splendour of your glory, that we may live in relationships which reflect your transfiguring love.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Your beloved Son was clothed in glory, but he suffered rejection, pain and death: may your beloved sons and daughters who suffer today be clothed in your transforming grace, that they may receive consolation in their sorrow and healing in their pain.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

Within our Parish we pray for: READ Weekly Prayer sheet

God of all glory,
we give thanks for your prophets and holy people of every age, for Moses and Elijah, for Peter, James and John,
and for all who have beheld your glory.
May we, like them, be changed from glory into glory,
that transformed into your likeness, we may dwell for ever in your holy presence.
God of mercy,
hear our prayer.

We offer our prayers together as we pray:

In a bright cloud, O God, you revealed the glory of your Christ, and named him as your beloved Son.
As we listen to the Law and the prophets let your Holy Spirit enlighten us, that we may truly hear their witness to the presence among us of the Word made Flesh, who is one with you and the Holy Spirit, now and always. Amen.
