King of love, all things come from you and belong to you.
Take our lives and consecrate them in your service . . .
We pray for the upcoming baptisms in our parish: for Air, Oliver and Poppy,
And Joshua and Caitlyn who are preparing to be married.
Keep your Church focused on our hope in you and your hold on your creation.

King of love, in your Christ's response to those seeking his entrapment he reminded them not to put you to the test.

Open our hearts to truth and justice . . .

We pray for all who call political leaders to account.

Praise the Lord for he is good:

Sing to God with thanksgiving.

King of love, you provide for all that we need to sustain our life.

Give us faith to place our money completely at your service . . .

Make us wise stewards of this currency of action.

Praise the Lord for he is good:

Sing to God with thanksgiving.

King of love, proclaim your release to all in the grip of debt and poverty.

Give consolation to the anxious and desperate . . .

Restore our true fortunes, O Lord.

Praise the Lord for he is good:

Sing to God with thanksgiving.

King of love, during the week we remembered Luke the Beloved Physician, who with Paul helped bring the gospel of wholeness and healing to the gentiles.

We pray for those for whom our prayers have been asked.

Praise the Lord for he is good:

Sing to God with thanksgiving.

King of love, the fullness of your glory is hidden from our sight.

Draw into the bright splendour of your presence all who have died . . .

You call us by name and we will rejoice with you for ever.

Today, as we return to the place of dust and earth, your sister Barb Annison. We thank you for all she shared with us on our own pilgrimage of life.

Praise the Lord for he is good:

Sing to God with thanksgiving.

The prayers conclude with:

God of grace and peace,

we rejoice that you have chosen us,

and empowered us by your spirit.

The Faithful Departed

Year's Mind

Lead us, that we may lead others,

Guide us, that we may be the people you would have us be.

Direct us, that we may do what you would have us do;

The Christ the Prince of peace. Amen.
